General Comment

I request that you do not restrict me from utilizing option investments within my Retirement Accounts.

The restrictions proposed in this ruling will have a detrimental effect on my ability to appropriately protect my investment positions with off-setting option positions.

This will do harm to me and millions of other investors and could easily be remedied with a required notification by brokers to their clients with an opt-out feature relative to option trading in their accounts.

This sweeping change as proposed is not an equitable solution.
